Article 5

The Governments of Dominica and Israel reserve the right to refuse admission to persons not possessing a valid national passport or lacking adequate means of subsistence or otherwise ineligible under the general policy of the respective Government relating to the entry of aliens.

Article 6

If the above proposals are acceptable to the Government of the Commonwealth of Dominica, I have the honour to suggest that the present Note and your reply in this respect shall constitute an agreement between the two Governments in this matter which shall enter into force on the date of Your Excellency's reply.

The agreement shall be subject to termination by either Government upon six months notice given in writing to the other Government.

I avail myself, of this opportunity to reiterate to Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
