International Course:

Emergency Situation Preparedness

April 22nd – May 10th, 2018
About the Course

Background

The objective of this course is to expose Israeli knowledge and experience in emergency situations to governments all over the world, in order to support LIFE SAVING as an Israeli and Jewish basic value, and to maintain economic, political and social stability in every country.

In recent decades, the Israeli Government and its emergency organizations, as well as the general public, have witnessed the need to cope with mass casualty events, and have acquired the relevant experience to confront them, both natural and manmade.

The course focuses on the complete cycle of the different stages of each emergency (before, during and after), and the different actors involved (Emergency managers, first responders and the civilian population).

Aims

The main goals of the course are to assist the authorities to formulate a National Response Plan to Crisis, by introducing them with the Israeli preparedness system in order to manage crisis.

The leading focus during the seminar will be DECITION MAKING concerning crisis management. All issues presented and discussed in the seminar will be emphasizing the main subject.

Main Subjects

- Population preparedness; Public instructions, public behavior.
- Principals of critical infrastructures protection.
- Managing a CBRN event.
- Use of early warning systems, as a critical stage of crisis mitigation.
- Principals for building population resilience within the communities.
- Medical system response in disasters. (EMS, hospitals, community medical services).

About MASHAV
MASHAV – Israel’s Agency for International Development Cooperation is dedicated to providing developing countries with the best of Israel’s experience in development and planning. As a member of the family of nations, The State of Israel is committed to fulfilling its responsibility to contribute to the fight against poverty and to the global efforts to achieve sustainable development. MASHAV, representing Israel and its people, focuses its efforts on capacity building, sharing relevant expertise accumulated during Israel’s own development experience to empower governments, communities and individuals to improve their own lives. MASHAV’s approach is to ensure social, economic and environmental sustainable development, and is taking active part in the international community’s process of shaping the Post-2015 Agenda, to define the new set of the global Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

MASHAV’s activities focus primarily on areas in which Israel has a competitive advantage, including agriculture and rural development; water resources management; entrepreneurship and innovation; community development; medicine and public health, empowerment of women and education. Professional programs are based on a “train the trainers” approach to institutional and human capacity building, and are conducted both in Israel and abroad. Project development is supported by the seconding of short and long-term experts, as well as on-site interventions. Since its establishment, MASHAV has promoted the centrality of human resource enrichment and institutional capacity building in the development process – an approach which has attained global consensus.

About N.E.M.A: Israel's National Emergency Management Authority - Ministry of Defense

NEMA (est. 2007) is an independent authority in Israel’s M.O.D. subordinated directly to the Minister of Defense. The organization's main goal is to prepare Israel’s homeland to successfully face emergency situations by coordinating and directing government offices, local authorities and relevant organizations. NEMA serves as a coordinating body under The Minister of Defense (MOD) in order to help him manage his responsibility in emergency situations in the civil arena. NEMA staff is responsible for several roles in routine and in emergency. During routine, the organization is tasked with prioritizing potential threats to the civilian sphere, defining preparedness criteria, and coordinating response protocols, among other responsibilities. In a time of emergency, NEMA is charged with operating the National Emergency Management Center (NEMC), consolidating real-time situation analysis, and presenting assessments to the MOD along with recommendations. NEMA then directs the implementation of MOD's decisions.

About The International Institute of Leadership - Histadrut
In 1958 the Histadrut – The General Federation of Workers in Israel, and MASHAV – Israel’s Agency for International Development Cooperation, established the International Institute of Leadership. Its vision is to improve socio-economic conditions in developing countries and to promote coexistence and democracy around the world.

With more than 50,000 Alumni from over 140 countries, the International Institute's goal is to train leaders to act as change agents and catalysts for development in their communities and their countries, and to strengthen the communities’ social structure from a personal point-of-view that focuses on the citizens and their personal experiences. To promote these goals, the International Institute cooperates with governments, trade unions, NGO's, public organizations, and private funds.
